About the 2014 UCI Para-Cycling Road World Championships

Greenville will host the 2014 UCI Para-cycling Road World Championships August 28 – September 1. This will be the first time that an American city has hosted the Para-cycling Road World Championships since 1998, and the event will include hundreds of athletes from more than 30 countries. The five-day event will feature individual time trial and road race disciplines for men, women and teams. Male and female athletes will compete in categorized events using bicycles adapted to their abilities (traditional or adapted bicycles; tandems; tricycles or hand-cycles) and will compete in categories related to defined disabilities such as amputation/limb loss, blindness/visual impairment, spinal cord injury/wheelchair-users and cerebral palsy/brain injury/stroke.
